The design began in January 2001 with fast track construction beginning shortly there after. The first phase (70,000 square feet) was occupied in September 2002. The second phase (100,000 square feet) was occupied September 2003. The third phase (50,000 square feet) is on scheduled for a November 2003 completion date.

The Princess Street Campus, located in Winnipeg’s historical Exchange District, is a state-of-the-art business, multi-media and information technology learning centre. The new campus design demonstrates a strong commitment to “green” architecture, historic renovation and interpretation, and the latest building technology.
