CUI Urban Leadership Series:

Bringing City Building into Focus: Adding Clarity to Vision

Moderated by Bob Onyschuk, Q.C., Partner, Gowling Lafleur Henderson LLP and Chairman,
Canadian Urban Institute

Friday, April 30, 2004

Your last chance to hear from

PAUL BEDFORD, as Toronto's Chief Planner.

Toronto, April 27, 2004— They say a picture is worth a thousand words, but an urban vision often needs pictures, words and passion to succeed, not to mention commitment from those leading change. Using a single graphic image to answer the question, "Got the vision, where do we go from here?" our panellists, who work at different scales and in very different environments, will share their views on how to bring urban visions to reality. You are invited to offer your own thoughts as part of the discussion.

WHAT: The Canadian Urban Institute's Urban Leadership Series intend to explain the complex urban issues facing Canadian cities.
