CORPORATE Members of the Canadian Urban Institute are welcomed as contributors who help the CUI to fulfill its mandate, providing a source of revenue that is used to undertake research and provide access to our events to individuals who might not otherwise be able to afford to participate.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

In addition, Corporate Members enjoy the following benefits:

- ACKNOWLEDGEMENT
Corporate Members are cited as supporters of the Institute at our Annual General Meeting and your corporate logo is included on CUI marketing materials.
- CONSULTING ADVICE
Corporate Members are entitled to consulting advice from senior staff equivalent to one day of consulting time per annum. Quick responses on information sources or other data are available at any time.
- FREE PUBLICATIONS
Corporate Members will receive the Urban Century, currently being published annually.
- ACCESS TO CONFERENCES AND SEMINARS
No limit on number of staff or guests eligible for standard discount. Corporate Members may send a staff member and/or a guest to any two major conferences per annum at no charge. Corporate Members may also send as many as five staff or guests to any Roundtable Breakfast or Urban Leadership seminar during the course of the year.
- SPONSORSHIP
In return for your organization's continued support, the CUI will offer you the first right of refusal to undertake additional sponsorship of conferences or contract research in your designated field of interest. As well, where appropriate, we will give your organization the opportunity to provide speakers for our events or undertake applied research.
- EXPERT URBAN PRACTITIONERS' NETWORK
The Canadian Urban Institute maintains a database of Expert Urban Practitioners who express an interest in being consulted on potential assignments overseas or here in Canada. Corporate Membership entitles your organization to register up to five individuals in this network.
- CONTACT:
